The Giant's Garden

A long time ago, a giant lived in a castle. The castle had a big garden. There were lots of beautiful trees and flowers in the garden.

Some children lived near the castle. They liked the Giant's garden, but the Giant did not like people. 'You can't play here! It's my garden!' he shouted. The Giant was selfish.

One day, the Giant went to visit his brother. -The Giant's going to be away for a long time,' said the children. 'Now we can play in his garden.' They were very happy Every day they went to the beautiful garden and played. They climbed the trees. They swam in the river. They ran on the grass. They chased butterflies.

The children liked the garden in all the seasons of the year.

In the spring the flowers and leaves grew.

In the summer the children rolled on the green grass.

In the autumn the leaves were orange and red. They fell from the trees and the children played with them.

In the winter the children played in the snow. They made snowmen.

Different children came to the garden every year.

Puzzles

1. What are the seasons? Write the right words.

IRTWNE RNSPIG MRSEMU MNAUUT

2. Put these sentences in the right order. Write the letters in the boxes.

- a) One day, the Giant went to visit his brother.
- b) Different children came to the garden every year.
- c) Children liked the garden, but the Giant did not like them.
- d) A long time ago, a giant lived in a castle with a big garden.
- e) Now the children played in the garden every day.

After seven years, the Giant came back to his castle. He saw children in his garden. He was very angry. 'Get out of here! It's my garden!' he shouted. 'You can't play here. This garden is MINE!'

'I'm going to build a brick wall,' he said. He built a wall round the garden.

The children were very sad. "Where can we play?" they said. Sometimes they played in the street, but it was hard and rough. 'The Giant's garden was better than the street," they said.

The Giant sat in his castle. 'It's nice and quiet now,' he thought. 'It's winter, but soon the spring will come. It will be warm and sunny. The flowers will grow. My garden will be beautiful again.'

But the Spring did not want to come. The Spring said 'The Giant's too selfish. I like children. I'm not going to go to a sad, empty garden.'

So the Snow, the Wind and the Rain played in the garden. The sun did not shine. Sometimes it was very windy Sometimes it snowed. Sometimes it rained. It was always cold and grey.

Puzzles

- b) It will snow.
- c) It will be sunny.
- d) It will be cloudy.
- e) It will be windy.

'Is the spring never going to come?' asked the sad, cold Giant.

Then one day he saw a little bird. 'The bird is singing in my garden!' he said - 'Hooray! The trees and flowers are growing!' He clapped his hands happily.

He looked again. 'The children have made a hole in the wall,' the Giant said. 'They've come back to my garden, and the sun has come with them!'

The Giant was not angry. He was delighted.

The Giant ran into the garden. He wanted to hug the children, but the children were afraid. They ran away and it became cold again.

'Don't run away,' said the Giant. 'I'm sorry. I was selfish. Please come and play in my garden.'

Only one little boy did not run away. He wanted to climb a tree, but he was too small.

'Don't cry, little boy. I'll help you,' said the Giant. He put the little boy on a branch in the tree. The boy smiled.

'Thank you,' the little boy said.

'You're welcome,' said the Giant.

The boy kissed the Giant's cheek. Spring came into the garden again.

Now the children played in the garden every day. The Giant played with them. All the children liked the Giant!

But the Giant did not see the little boy again. 'Where's the little boy?' he asked the children, but they did not know.

After ten years, the Giant was old. He did not play now. He looked at his garden and smiled. Many children played in the garden.

Then one day he saw the little boy again. He was under a tree in the garden. The Giant ran out of his castle. He picked up the little boy and kissed him.

The boy said, 'A long time ago you helped me. We are friends. I played in your garden. Now you are going to play in my garden. My garden is Heaven.'

In the evening the children came into the garden.

They saw the Giant. He was under the same tree. 'Is he asleep?' asked one girl.

Why are the Seasons Different?

This is the Earth. It is on a tilt. It goes round the Sun once a year. This gives us seasons.

In the summer, your part of the world is nearer to the Sun. Days are longer. It is warmer. In the winter, your part of the world is further away from the Sun. Days are shorter and nights are longer. It is colder.

The top half of the Earth is the Northern Hemisphere, and the bottom half of the Earth is the Southern Hemisphere.

The Equator is the line round the middle of the Earth. It is always hot at places on the Equator. When it is summer in the Southern Hemisphere, it is winter in the Northern Hemisphere.

Seasons in Different Countries

Japan is in the Northern Hemisphere. Spring is from March to May in Japan. In the spring, people wait to see the flowers on the cherry blossom trees. Then they have parties under the trees. This is the Hanami Festival.

The longest day in the Northern Hemisphere is on 21 or 22 June each year. This is the middle of summer. There is a flower festival for four days each June in California, USA.

There is a parade and people go to flower fields to look at the flowers. There is a Chinese festival in the autumn. It is the Mid-Autumn Festival. People wait to see a big round moon in the night sky. They eat mooncakes and they light lanterns.

Christmas is on 25 December. It is winter in the Northern Hemisphere. It is usually very cold. Sometimes it snows. But Christmas in Australia is in the summer. It is usually hot and sunny. Some people go to the beach on Christmas day!

Fireman Bill and the Dragon

This is Fireman Bill. He lives in a small town called Limpover. His job is to put out fires and to save cats. Bill does not work every day, but he always goes to the fire station to polish the fire-engine. Bill is always happy. He likes his yellow and black uniform. People wave and smile at Fireman Bill. Say 'hello' to Bill's dog, Desmond.

Last month it rained every day. Fireman Bill thought, 'Good, there will not be any fires.' But he was wrong. Lots of houses and fields and trees caught fire. Fireman Bill was very busy. He ran to the fire-engine and put the fires out. 'Why are there so many fires?' said Bill to Desmond.

The people in Limpover were very worried.

Mrs Jones, the nurse, put water in buckets. She put the buckets beside her door.

Mr Finn, the fisherman, said to Fireman Bill, 'It's too hot! The fires will cook my fish!'

Puzzles

1. Put the letters in the right order. Choose the right words.

water job dog nurse

- a) Fireman Bill has a _____ called Desmond.
- b) Mrs Jones is a _____.
- c) Fireman Bill's _____ is to put out fires.
- d) Mrs Jones put _____ in buckets.

A girl called Ann lived on the hill. One night her house caught fire, but Ann did not know. She was asleep. Desmond saw the fire and barked at Fireman Bill. They went to the house in the fire-engine, and Bill put out the fire. He saved Ann.

Ann said, 'Why are there so many fires, Fireman Bill?'

'I don't know, but I will find out!' said Fireman Bill.

'I will help you!' said Ann.

That night Ann and Bill sat in a tree at the top of the hill. They waited. A red dragon flew over them. His name was Degsy. He was as big as a house. Smoke came out of his nose.

'Look!' said Bill. 'A naughty dragon! He started all the fires.'

Ann was angry. 'He burned my house!' she said.

'That's not nice! Let's catch him!'

Degsy landed near the tree.

"Go and talk to the dragon," said Bill to Ann, 'and I will grab his tail.'

Ann said, 'Hi there, dragon!' and Bill grabbed Degsy's tail. Degsy saw Bill. He shook his tail, and Bill fell down. The dragon flew away quickly.

Puzzles

c) 'He _____ my house!' Ann said.

d) _____ was angry.

e) Ann said, ' _____ there, dragon!'

f) Bill _____ Degsy's tail.

2. What will happen next? Which sentence do you think is right?

Tick it []

a) Fireman Bill will kill the dragon. []

b) The dragon will start a fire in Bill's house. []

c) Fireman Bill and Ann will catch the dragon. []

d) Ann will kill the dragon. []

Degsy was not a happy dragon. The next night he started lots of fires. Fireman Bill was very busy. He went to the fire station to get some more water. 'Oh no!' said Fireman Bill. 'The dragon has burned the fire station!'

Bill said to Mr Finn, 'Can I have a fishing net, please?' Mr Finn gave him a big net. Bill and Ann went to the top of the hill again. Degsy flew into the net.

'Oh no! I can't move!' said Degsy.

Fireman Bill turned on his hose. He put a lot of water in the dragon's mouth. He put out Degsy's fire!

Degsy was quiet now.

'Why did you make all those fires?' said Ann.

'I ate a box of matches,' said Degsy. 'Then I opened my mouth and fire came out.'

'You're a naughty dragon!' said Bill. 'You have burned half of Limpover!' Desmond barked at Degsy.

'I'm sorry,' said the sad dragon.

Puzzles

Write the right words.

Degsy	Fireman Bill Ann	fire	net
Desmond	fire station hose	buckets	field

'Now I have put out your fire,' said Fireman Bill. You can be a good dragon. You can put out fires with me. ''Drink some water, Degsy,' said Ann. Degsy put the hose in his mouth. He drank lots of water. Fireman Bill lit a match. 'Blow, Degsy!' said Fireman Bill. Degsy blew.

Now Degsy helps Fireman Bill. He doesn't blow fire. He squirts water. Degsy doesn't make fires. He puts them out. Degsy and Bill built a new fire station. The people in Limpover are very happy.

Volcanoes

A volcano is a mountain. Under the mountain there is lava in a hole in the rock. Lava is like rock but it is soft and very, very hot. Sometimes the volcano erupts and lava comes out of the top of the mountain. It is very noisy. The hot lava goes down the mountain.

This volcano is erupting. Smoke is coming out of the top.

Some volcanoes do not erupt. They are called extinct volcanoes.

The people on the island of Tristan da Cunha thought the volcano there was extinct. But one day in 1961 it erupted. Lava ran down into the sea. Not many people lived on the island. They all escaped - in a small boat. Later the volcano was quiet, so the people went back.

There is a volcano on the island of Krakatau in Indonesia. The people there did not know they lived on a volcano! In 1883 the volcano erupted. Some of the island sank into the sea. Some people escaped but many people were killed.

The volcano Vesuvius, in Italy, erupted in the year AD 79. Rocks and dust flew up into the sky and lava ran down the mountain. Stones and lava fell on the city of Pompeii. The houses fell down and the people were killed.

Many years later people found the city of Pompeii. Under the lava they found the houses and the people.

Today you can visit Pompeii. You can see how people lived in AD 79. You can see some of the people in their houses.

In the United States (USA), there is an old story about a volcano. A man stole some fire from a volcano and ran away. The man was not careful. He tripped and fell, and the world caught fire. He was very sorry.

The Fat Prince and the Angry Man

Percy is a prince. He lives in a beautiful country called Pinland. Peter is his father. He is the King of Pinland. They both live in the palace.

Last summer, Percy was sad.

'You can't play with the other children in the sun,' the King said to Prince Percy. 'They are poor, but you are rich. One day you are going to be King of Pinland.'

Many poor children played outside the palace. Every day they ran, jumped and danced. Sometimes they worked with their mothers and fathers in the fields. They were poor, but they were healthy.

Prince Percy sat in the palace and ate too many cakes and ice-creams. He was a fat prince.

Near the palace there was a big, dark forest.

'Let's go and play in the forest!' said the children. 'We can climb trees.'

Some old people in the town were angry. 'Don't go in the forest!' they said. 'It's dangerous. The Angry Man lives there. He will eat you.' The children laughed. They were not afraid.

Puzzles

1. Write the right words. Choose from:

prince palace children
forest king town

2. Who do you think the Angry Man is? The old people said, 'He will eat you.' Can you draw the Angry Man?

One day Prince Percy looked out of the palace window. He saw the children playing and laughing in a field near the forest. 'They're happy,' he thought. 'Why can't I play with them?' He bounced a ball on the floor sadly.

Then a boy shouted to Percy, 'Come here and play with us!' The boy's name was Podd. He was fat.

Prince Percy was afraid. 'My father will be angry,' he said.

'Don't be afraid,' said Podd. 'Come and play with us!'

Percy looked at the children. They were happy. He carried his ball to the field and played with the children.

Podd looked at the trees. 'I'm going to play in the forest!' he said. 'Come with me!' 'No, don't go!' said his friend, Tom. 'The Angry Man lives there. He will eat you.'

'I'm not afraid,' Podd said. He went to the forest. Prince Percy and the children followed him.

[☐]
- b) The children will play happily in the forest. [☐]
- c) The Angry Man will eat Podd. [☐]
- d) The Angry Man will catch Percy, but he will not eat him.

Suddenly Podd saw a thin old man. He had a very angry face.

'Help!' shouted Podd. 'It's the Angry Man. He will eat us!'

The children ran away But Prince Percy was too fat.

'I can't run quickly enough!' he said. The Angry Man caught him. Percy was afraid. 'Are you going to eat me?' he asked the Angry Man.

'No,' said the Angry Man. 'Come to my house. You can work for me. My name is Alan.'

Percy went to Alan's house in the forest. He worked hard. He cooked, cleaned, chopped wood and dug th garden. In the evening, Percy was tired and hungry Alan gave him enough food, but not too much. There were no cakes or ice-creams.

Prince Percy worked hard every day. Every evenin Percy and Alan ate bread, chicken, vegetables and fruit. They drank water and tea. Percy was not a fat prince now. He was slim and healthy.

'Why are you angry?' asked Percy one day. 'Why don't you live in the town?'

'Everyone in the town laughed at me,' said Alan.

'Why did they laugh?' asked Percy-

'Because I was thin and ugly,' said Alan.

Puzzles

1. Write the right words. Choose from:

bread fruit chicken vegetables

2. Write a tick [☐] beside the true sentences, and a cross [☒] I beside the false ones.

- a) Suddenly Podd saw a fat old man. [☐]

- d)Every morning Percy and Alan ate bread, chicken, vegetables and fruit. []
- e) They drank water and lemon juice. []
- f) People laughed because Alan was thin and ugly. []

Now Prince Percy and Alan were friends, so Alan was not angry. He was a happy man. Percy ate enough food but he did not eat too much food. Now the Angry Man was not angry, and the fat prince was not fat!

But the prince was not happy. 'I want to go and see my father in the palace,' he said. 'I want to play with the children.'

Alan and the prince went to the palace. The people in the town saw them. They were amazed.

'Look at the prince!' they said. 'He was a fat prince, but now he's slim! And look at Alan! He was an angry man, but now he's happy!'

'I ate less food and I worked hard,' said Percy proudly, 'so now I'm slim.'

'I want to be slim!' said Podd. 'I will eat less food, too.'

The King was very happy to see his son. 'You can play with the other children,' he said. 'And Alan, you can come and live at the palace.'

How to be Healthy

Hello, my name is Janet. This is my brother, John. We need food. Food gives us energy and helps us grow.

I have lots of energy, so I can run, jump, think, breathe and talk.

A car needs petrol. This car has petrol in it, so it can go. Your body needs food.

You need good food. Paul eats too much food, so he is fat.

Jill does not eat enough food, so she does not have enough energy.

These are healthy foods:

vegetables fruit bread

Some foods have too much fat or sugar in them. Don't eat too much of these.

Fruit and vegetables are healthy. Here are some fruits:

Here are some vegetables:

Some foods help your teeth and bones grow strong. Milk, cheese and yoghurt do this.

You need to eat meat, fish, cheese, eggs or beans. You can eat them with rice, potatoes, noodles or bread.

What foods do you like?

Beaugy and the Beast

Long ago, a rich young man lived in a beautiful castle. People did not like him because he was selfish and unkind. One day an old woman came to the castle and asked for some water. 'Go away!' shouted the young man.

The old woman touched him with her stick and said, 'You're a beast. Look in the mirror.' He looked and he saw an ugly beast. It had long hair, an yellow eyes and sharp teeth.

The old woman was a fairy!

'I was unkind,' said the Beast. 'But please touch me again with your magic wand. I don't want to be a beast. I want to become a man again.'

'I can't make you a man again,' said the fairy. She went away, and the Beast never saw her again. The Beast lived in his beautiful, empty castle.

A rich man lived in a big house with his three daughters. Two of his daughters were selfish and greedy. They liked parties and nice dresses, but they never did any work. The youngest daughter was quiet, good and beautiful. Her name was Beauty.

The girls' father was a merchant. He bought and sold things from all round the world. He had many ships, but one day he said, 'All my ships have sunk. We're poor now! I'm going to sell our big house. We will go and live in a little house.'

Puzzles

1. Look at the pictures and the words. The words are wrong. Write the right words in the blanks.

- a) a rich man _____
- b) short hair _____
- c) a beautiful face _____
- d) a young woman _____

2. Read the rhyme. Write the right letters in the boxes below. What is the word?

The first letter is in bee, but not in see.

The second letter is in head, but not in had.

The third letter is in has, but not in she.

The fourth letter is in sad, but not in dad.

The fifth letter is in tea, but not in sea.

The answer is an animal, ugly and bad!

3. Will the Beast become a man again? Guess the answer. Yes/No.

The family went to live in a little house. Beauty worked hard.

Her sisters sat and cried because they were poor.

One day their father said, 'I'm going to go to the port tomorrow. One of my ships didn't sink and is coming home!'

'Bring us some new dresses!' said his older daughters.

'What do you want, Beauty?' asked her father.

'Please bring me a rose, dear Father,' said Beauty. 'There are no roses in our garden.'

The next day the girls' father went to the port, but his ship never came! Now he did not have any money to buy dresses for his daughters. He started to walk home, but soon he was lost in a forest.

Then he saw a light. He followed it, and saw a castle. The door of the castle was open. He went inside, and saw lots of food on a table. 'Hello!' he called. There was no answer. He sat down and ate. Then he fell asleep.

The next morning, the girls' father went outside the castle. He saw some beautiful roses, and picked one.

'Thief!' shouted a voice. 'You ate my food, and now you're stealing my flowers. I'm going to kill you!'

It was the Beast! The girls' father was afraid. He said, 'I picked this rose for Beauty, my youngest daughter.'

'Bring her here!' said the Beast. He gave Beauty's father a box and said, 'This will help your family. Open it at home, then bring Beauty.'

Puzzles

1. One letter in a word in each sentence is wrong. Put a cross over it and write the right word in the blank. The pictures will help you.

The girls' father went home. 'Did you bring our dresses?' asked Beauty's sisters.

He told them his story sadly.

'I'll go to the Beast,' said Beauty. 'I'm not afraid.'

'No, no,' said her father. Then he opened the box. It was full of gold. 'The Beast has helped us. He's given us the gold,' he said. 'I'm rich again, but now I can't have my favourite daughter with me.' Beauty's father cried.

The next day, Beauty's father took Beauty to the Beast's castle. He kissed Beauty and went away.

Beauty was very brave. She walked round the castle, and found a beautiful bedroom. She found cupboards full of beautiful dresses, and she found a rose on the bed.

She put on the most beautiful dress and put the rose in her hair.

Beauty went to the dining-room. All her favourite food was on the table. Beauty sat down. Then the Beast came in.

Beauty said, 'Thank you for my presents, sir.'

'Call me Beast! Tell me, am I very ugly? Are you afraid of me?'

'Yes, Beast, you are ugly,' said Beauty slowly, 'but you have a nice voice. I'm not afraid of you because you're nice to me.'

Puzzles

2. Who said these things? Write the right people.

the Beast Beauty's sisters Beauty
Beauty's father

a) 'Did you bring our dresses?' _____

b) 'I'll go to the Beast.' _____

c) 'Now I can't have my favourite daughter with me.' _____

d) 'Tell me, am I very ugly?' _____

Beauty lived in the castle with the Beast and they were very happy.

One day Beauty said, 'Please, can I go to see my family?'

'Put on this ring,' said the Beast. 'You'll go to sleep, and you'll wake up at home. After seven days, put the ring on again. You'll go to sleep and you'll wake up in this castle. Goodbye, Beauty. Come back after seven days!'

Beauty was happy with her family. 'Don't go away again!' they said.

But on the eighth night Beauty saw the Beast in a dream. He was very sick and sad. Beauty put on the ring quickly. 'I'm coming back, Beast!' she said. Beauty woke up in the castle. She looked in every room, but the Beast was not there. She went to the garden and saw the Beast!

'Wake up, Beast!' Beauty said, but he did not move.

'Oh, Beast!' she said. 'I love you! Please don't die!' Beauty kissed his ugly face.

Then the Beast became a tall, handsome, young man!

'Long ago,' the young man said, 'I was selfish and unkind. A fairy touched me with her magic wand and I became a beast. Now I am a man again because you love me. Beauty, will you marry me?'

'Yes,' said Beauty.

Stories about Beasts

There are lots of stories about beasts. Some of them are very old. Most of the stories about beasts are not true, and usually the beasts are bad, but there are some good beasts, too.

Hans Christian Andersen lived from 1805-1875 in Denmark. He wrote a sad story about a kind mermaid. In the story she loves a prince and becomes a girl with legs, but she is not happy and she goes back to the sea.

Robert Louis Stevenson lived in England. In 1886 he wrote a book, Doctor Jekyll and Mr Hyde. In the story Doctor Jekyll is a good man, but Mr Hyde is a bad man and he kills people. Doctor Jekyll and Mr Hyde are the same person! Doctor Jekyll makes a drink and drinks it. Then he becomes Mr Hyde. There are many films about Jekyll and Hyde.

There is also a film about the Elephant Man, but this is a true story. In 1888 Doctor Treves found John Merrick in a cage in a circus. John Merrick was sick, and his face was very ugly. People came to look at him and laugh. They called him the Elephant Man, but he was clever and he was a good man. Doctor Treves took him to his house and became his friend and teacher. But John Merrick was very sick, and he died in 1890.

Roses

There were roses millions of years ago. They grow all round the world. In 1597 there was a book with a list of only nine different roses, but now there are more than 3,000 different roses.

Roses grow on bushes, trees and climbing plants.

They are many different colours and shapes, and they do not all have the same number of petals. They all have different names, too!

Roses are beautiful and some of them smell very nice, too. There are many stories and poems about roses, and many people like to give roses for presents.

The largest rose tree in the world is in the United States. Its trunk is 101 centimetres thick and it is 2.74 metres tall. 150 people can sit under the tree at the same time!
